

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start!
- Let's Explore!
- Let's Practice!
- Extension Activity
- Target Words
- Learning Points

Let's Start!

Writing Spot: It's time to write a party invitation!

Learning Outcome:

Accurately use important information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements:

- I can write about future actions.
- I can write an invitation to a colleague via email.
- I can write about travel and transportation.

Ask your partner:

- When was the last time you sent or received a formal invitation?
- What kind of information do you usually find in an invitation?

Let's Explore!

Everyone in the office has received an invitation* to the Grand Gala

* An "invitation" is a written or spoken request asking someone to come to a social event.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Dear colleagues,

You are all invited to Holly's Grand Gala on Friday, November 16th at 8:00 p.m. The event is taking place at Rafael's, the old Central Train Station, located at 1600 Queen's Blvd.

This will coincide with our other event in Sao Paulo that is occurring during their renowned Fashion Week. The events are going to be broadcast simultaneously. Ricardo Verde is going to host the event and "1WayToHeaven" is going to play.

A cheese and wine reception will be followed by a fruit and chocolate fondue. Farmani is covering champagne for all our employees.

Transportation: Rafael's is conveniently located by the Queen's Blvd subway station. Bicycle stands are beside the entrance and there is a small parking lot on the east side of the building. Valet service is available for a fee. There is parking on the side streets west of the station. Parking meters are free after 6:00 pm. William's Limousine service must be contacted a week in advance for reservations. For those involved in setup prior to the event, there will be shuttle service from Polygon at 5:30 and 6:30.

Please RSVP by this Friday, November 9th. This will be a fun event. Don't miss it!

Yours, Miranda

Let's Practice!

The invitation is out*!

* "Out" means the invitation has been sent.

Instructions: Number the sentences 1 - 7 in the correct order. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

- _____ 1 Subject: Holly's Grand Gala Invitation
- _____ You are all invited to Holly's Grand Gala on Friday, November 16th at 8:00pm.
- _____ Dear colleagues,
- _____ Please RSVP by this Friday, November 9th. This will be a fun event. Don't miss it!
- _____ Yours, Miranda
- _____ The event is taking place at Rafael's, the old Central Train Station, located at 1600 | Queen's Blvd.
- _____ This will coincide with our other event in Sao Paulo that is occurring during their renowned Fashion Week. The events are going to be broadcast simultaneously. Ricardo Verde is going to host the event and "1WayToHeaven" is going to play.

Let's Practice!

How are we going to get there?

Instructions: Read the text. Write the missing words in the corresponding space. Use capital letters where necessary. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. _____ are beside the entrance.
2. There is a small _____ on the east side of the building.
3. On _____ west of the station are _____.
4. There will be a _____ from Polygon at 5:30 and 6:30 and a _____ is available as well.
5. Please _____ by this Friday.
6. The event will be taking place at the Central _____.

Extension Activity

Writing an invitation!

*Instructions: Complete the following steps.
Fill in the Self-Assessment.*

- Your office is hosting an annual Gala party for all the employees. Your boss asked you to write a party invitation.
- Write down notes about the event. Think about day, time, location, etc.
- Write a 100-150 word invitation
- Start your invitation with an intro.
- Add RSVP information and any additional information.
- Include two sentences using the future.
- Include language for a party/event invitation.
- Proofread your work.
- Read your invitation to a partner

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I write a party invitation.

☐ ☐

I use/include sentences using the future and language for an invitation.

☐ ☐

I share my invitation with a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- central train station (noun)
the main location usually located in middle of an area where passengers can board and get off the trains e.g. The event is taking place at the Central Train Station.
- parking lot (noun)
a designated place with marked spaces for vehicles to park e.g. There's a small parking lot on the east side of the building.
- shuttle service (noun)
an arranged pick-up and drop-off service for multiple passengers meeting at specific locations e.g. There will be a shuttle service from the office to the event.
- bicycle stand (noun)
a rack to which bicycles can be locked outside e.g. There are bicycle stands beside the main entrance.
- side streets (noun)
small streets between or leading from major streets
e.g. You can park on the side streets west of the station.
- parking meters (noun)
devices for paying to park a vehicle for an amount of time e.g. There are parking meters on the side streets.
- limousine service (noun)
arranged transportation by a large luxurious vehicle e.g. A limousine service needs to be contacted in advance.

Learning Points

Future With Present Continuous, Be Going To, and Will

When describing the future, we use three main structures: Present Continuous, be going to, and will.

1. Present Continuous

Form: be + verb + -ing

Use: We use the present continuous to talk about future arrangements that have already been made. We normally use them with a time expression.

Example:

- The party is taking place at the Grand Hall on Saturday, Dec 18th.
- Farmani is covering the champagne.

2. Be going to Form: be + going to + verb

Use: We use the structure "be going to" to talk about plans, intentions, and decisions about the future.

Example:

- Mark Ronson is going to host the event on Saturday.
- Bryan Adams is going to play at the event.

Note: Be going to is more common in spoken English than in written English.

3. Will

Form: Will + verb

Use: You use will to talk about actions or events in the future that you think of as facts.

Example:

- This event will be successful!
- A cheese and wine reception will be followed by a fruit and chocolate fondue.

Learning Points

Language for Party or Event Invitation

A party invitation is a letter communicating to people that you want them to attend an event. A good invitation needs to contain all the necessary language and information about the party. Here are some expressions and language you can use when writing a party invitation.

Header	Dear colleagues / co-workers / friends
Inviting people • use the passive voice • use the verb "invite"	You are invited to our Annual Gala Party
Date and time • use prepositions of time	on Friday / Saturday. at 8 p.m. / 9 p.m.
Where • use "will", "be going to" or present continuous • use the verb "take place"	the event will / is going to take place at Donato's
Main Events • use "will", "be going to" or present continuous to describe what is involved in the party.	The events are going to be broadcast at the same time. There will be a shuttle service.
Conclusion • use the word RSVP ("Please reply") to ask people invited to say whether they can go or not • use the phrase "by + day" to indicate a deadline.	Please RSVP by Wednesday.