

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start!
- Let's Explore!
- Let's Practice!
- Extension Activity
- Target Words
- Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome:

Accurately use important information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements:

- I can give opinions.
- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can ask for clarification.

Ask your partner:

- How do you usually feel after attending an event?
- What aspects of the party do you usually talk about? The music? The people?

Let's Explore!

Janet and Miranda chat about the party. What do they talk about?

* "In full swing" means at the most effective or highest level of operation or activity.

Instructions: Read the dialog aloud.

Janet: Miranda, how are you feeling?

Miranda: I'm tired, but what an amazing party, if you ask me. I was reluctant about this event at first, but, personally, I think having the two events happen simultaneously helped divert attention from the media leak.

Janet: Are you saying we avoided bad press and helped Farmani rebrand?

Miranda: I'd say we've directed attention to Farmani's new clothing line and helped him connect with a new audience.

Janet: Right. I'm giving both you and Peter a raise. You two have guaranteed that I've made the right decision. You have charisma, Miranda.

Miranda: Does that mean I get a new office? Or is it just a bonus?

Janet: Ok, let's backtrack. I don't think a new office is necessary. However, you are happy with a raise, aren't you?

Miranda: Of course! Thank you Janet.

Janet: I guess it's time to discuss what we're doing next. What's on your agenda?

Miranda: My intention is to contact Ferdinand and get his feedback.

Janet: I'd say that sounds appropriate.

Miranda: I strongly believe that there will be lots of activity about the events online.

Janet: Perhaps. That video of you went viral.

Miranda: Real funny, Janet. Anyways, I'm expecting to hear from Ferdinand soon.

Janet: Sounds to me like you're on top of things like usual. Keep me in the loop.

Let's Practice!

You're going to ask me a question, aren't you*?

* "Aren't you?" is a tag question that you use to confirm information that is not clear to you.

Instructions: Underline all the expressions used for seeking clarification in the sentences.

- 1) Are you saying we managed to avoid bad press?
- 2) Does that mean I will get a new office tomorrow?
- 3) You're happy with getting a raise, aren't you?
- 4) Do you mean to say that we've actually helped them?
- 5) Or is this just a bonus for all the work I've done?

Let's Practice!

I'll give you my two *cents!

* When you give your "two cents" on something you say what your opinion is about something.

Instructions: Match the options 1 - 5 with their corresponding halves a - e. Use capital letters where necessary. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

- | | |
|---|------------------------|
| 1) 1. The party was amazing, _____. | a) I say |
| 2) _____ it was a good idea to have both events simultaneously. | b) personally, I think |
| 3) _____ that sounds appropriate. | c) I'd say |
| 4) _____ people will be talking about this on the internet. | d) if you ask me |
| 5) _____ we contact him and get his assessment. | e) I strongly believe |

Extension Activity

Create an office survey!

*Instructions: Complete the following steps.
Fill in the Self-Assessment.*

- Write three to five questions related to an office event held recently. (For example, did you like the party? Why?)
- Go around the office or your room and ask questions. Make sure you record their answers.
- Ask people to elaborate on their answers.
- Ask for clarification when you do not understand a response.
- Compile the results of your survey and share them with your colleagues.

Target Words

- reluctant (adjective) not willing to do something e.g. I was very reluctant about this event at first.
- bad press (expression) criticism that appears in the news
e.g. We need to avoid bad press.
- to direct attention to (expression) to focus someone's concern on something e.g. We helped direct attention to their new clothing line.
- to guarantee (verb) to promise something will happen
e.g. I can guarantee I have made the right decision.
- intention (noun)
a plan in your mind to do something e.g. My intention is to contact him and get some feedback.
- leak (noun)
an occasion when private or secret information is told to the press e.g. It helped us divert attention from the leak.
- to rebrand (verb) to change the corporate image of a company e.g. We avoided bad press and helped the company rebrand.
- to connect with (expression) to make someone understand something and have the same ideas and opinions e.g. We helped him connect with a new audience.
- to have charisma (expression) to possess a strong personal quality that makes other people like you e.g. You do have charisma, Miranda.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write questions about an office event.

☐
☐

I ask questions and record answers.

☐
☐

I ask people for their opinions.

☐
☐

I ask for clarification when

☐
☐

I don't understand something.

☐
☐

I talk about my answers with friends.

☐
☐

Learning Points

Dealing with Communication Breakdown

Sometimes you don't understand what was said or something was not clear to you. It is, therefore, important to seek clarification from the person you are talking to.

- Use a tag question
You're happy with getting a raise, aren't you?
- Use the phrases "do you mean ... ", "are you saying ... ", "does that mean ... " and the information you need clarification on.
Are you saying we avoided bad press and helped Farmani rebrand?
Does that mean I can get a new office with a window?
Do you mean to say that we've actually helped them?
- Use the conjunction "or" followed by the clarification you need to make.
Or is this just a bonus for all the work I've done?

Giving Opinions

Conversations are far more interesting when people interact during the conversation. It is important to ask for others' opinions on a subject as well as giving your own. Here are some ways you can give opinions.

- clause +, if you ask me.
- Personally, + clause.
- I think + clause.
- I'd say + clause.
- I say + clause.
- I strongly believe + clause.

Examples

- The party was amazing, if you ask me.
- Personally, I think it was a good idea to have both events happening at the same time.
- I'd say this helped the company connect with a new audience.
- I say we contact him and get his assessment.
- I strongly believe people will be talking about this on the internet.

