

Let's Practice!

When do you want the event to take place?

Instructions: Read the questions aloud. Underline all the weak forms. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. Does anyone want some coffee?
2. Does this meeting concern logistics?
3. Do we have a date in mind?
4. When does fashion week begin?
5. What do you say?

Let's Practice!

I'm sure she's got enough clout to argue for a celebrity.

Instructions: Read the conversation and write the missing words in the corresponding place. Use capital letters where necessary. Role play the conversation aloud with a partner. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

Miranda: Do you want some coffee?

Ferdinand: I'm _____, thanks.

Miranda: Why don't we start with a date and a venue?

Ferdinand: That _____.

Ferdinand: What do you say about starting the events simultaneously?

Miranda: _____.

Ferdinand: Do we have a date in mind?

Miranda: _____ we don't.

Miranda: The event is in four Fridays from now. Can we do it?

Ferdinand: I' _____.

Words

- I regret to inform you that
- I'm afraid that's too soon
- is a good start
- OK for now
- It's definitely a great idea