Let's Start!

Some people are just hard to manage!

Learning Outcome:

Accurately use important information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements:

- I can deal with communication breakdown.
- I can give opinions.
- I can discuss behaviour and personality.

Ask your partner:

- What problems might you have before an important event?
- What can you do to avoid them?

Let's Explore!

Miranda and Peter talk about a special request by one of the celebrities. What is it?

Instructions: Read the dialog aloud.

- Miranda: Peter, help! Ricardo Verde needs wheelchair access.
- Peter: I'm not sure I follow you. What happened to Ricardo?
- Miranda: His daughter-in-law broke her leg last week but wants to attend.
- Peter: Isn't this three days away? I don't think we can find a new building.
- Miranda: Exactly. Ricardo is sensitive. If his daughter-in-law isn't provided for, he will cancel.
- Peter: What would you say to helping her up the stairs?
- Miranda: No, he's very contrary, if you ask me. Now he's blaming me for choosing a non-accessible facility. He's really crusty!
- Peter: He's demanding! I say we build a ramp.
- Miranda: You mean a wheelchair ramp?
- Peter: Yes! I strongly believe the company we hired for the catwalk will have something.
- Miranda: Don't you think it would be dangerous without a rail? Ricardo will throw a tantrum.
- Peter: Hmmmm. What's your opinion of a temporary fence? I'd say it might not meet safety codes, but just this once ...
- Miranda: Eh? What are you talking about?
- Peter: Potted plants. We could rent solid urns with flowers to line each side of the ramp.
- Miranda: You are inventive!
- Peter: Hire a porter for the front door and I'll take care of the inside.

Let's Practice!

According to Peter, Ricardo is demanding*!

* "Demanding" refers to a person that is not easily pleased or satisfied.

Instructions: Match the words on the right to their corresponding definition on the left.

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| 1) sensitive | a) likely to become angry or upset easily |
| 2) inventive | b) suddenly behave in a very angry and unreasonable way |
| 3) crusty | c) easily annoyed |
| 4) throw a tantrum | d) inclined to do disagree or to do the opposite of what is expected or desired |
| 5) contrary | e) good at thinking of new and original ideas |

Let's Practice!

He's very difficult to deal with, if you ask me.

Learning Points

Dealing with Communication Breakdown

Sometimes you don't understand what was said or something was not clear to you. It is, therefore, important to express your lack of understanding and seek clarification from the person you are talking to.

Expressing lack of understanding	Asking for clarification
I'm not sure I follow you. Eh?	What happened to ... ? Isn't ... ? You mean ... ? What are you talking about?

Examples

- Ron: We need to make special arrangements.
Ian: I'm not sure I follow you. What are you talking about?
Ron: We need to provide wheelchair access.
- Ron: I don't think we can meet the safety codes.
Ian: Eh? You mean fire hazards?

Giving Opinions

Conversations are far more interesting when people interact during the conversation. It is important to ask for others' opinions on a subject as well as giving your own. Here are some ways you can give opinions.

- I (don't) think ... + clause*
- What would you say to ... + verb + -ing ?*
- ... if you ask me.*
- I say ... + clause*
- I strongly believe (that) + clause*
- Don't you think ... + clause?*
- What's your opinion of + noun / -ing?*
- I'd say ... + clause*
- A verb in the imperative form - Hire / Move, etc.*

Examples

- I don't think we can find a new building.*
- What would you say to making special arrangements?*
- He's very contrary, if you ask me.*
- I strongly believe we need to have wheelchair access.*
- What's your opinion of building a temporary fence?*
- Hire* someone to work the front door and see to the guests.
